

Indol Data Act

Which items are covered by the answers below, or is it your entire range of products?: All

Data type: JSON

Quantity: Subject to the actual reporting quantity of the devices.

Data persistence: When the devices are online, a round of data will be reported every 5 minutes, with 3 - 4 data packets in each round.

Data real - time performance: A round of status parameters will be reported every 5 minutes, and a round of control parameters will be reported every 1 hour. Any changes in the control parameters will be reported immediately.

Data storage method: Data is stored on the server side. By default, data is stored for two years. Data exceeding two - year storage period will be compressed for storage, and direct query of the compressed data is not supported.

Data retrieval method: Dealers can access the data through the curve page of the IOT platform, while end - users can access it through the curve page of the APP.

Data deletion: Currently, users and dealers are unable to directly delete device data.